Camp Release

PERSONAL CONDUCT- Church camp is about living in Christian community. In an attempt to provide an atmosphere where children can live together in the community, the campers are expected to: participate and cooperate in activities, respect one another, use no profanity, wear modest and appropriate clothing, and have behavior that is not disruptive to the program. The camp reserves the right to send home a camper who is unable to function within these guidelines.

In signing this, I certify that all information provided during registration and all forms is correct and my child/ward is in good health and may participate in camping activities. Should it become necessary for him/her to return home during the week because of illness, accident, homesickness, or conduct, I will abide by the camp's decision in this matter and provide transportation.

I recognize that certain hazards and dangers are inherent in camp events and programs. I understand, also, that although the camp has taken precaution to provide proper supervision instruction, training, and equipment for each activity, it is impossible for the camp to guarantee absolute safety. I further understand that my child/ward shares responsibility for his/her safety and I have instructed my child/ward in the importance of knowing and abiding by camp rules, regulations, and procedures for the safety of the camp participant.

Further, I waive any claim that may arise against the camp and/or employees as a result of participation in the program, except for those that are a direct result of gross negligence of the camp or its employees.

I also give permission for the person named to be photographed and/or recorded for promotional purposes.

In signing this form, I agree by all policies governing personal conduct and use of camp property as outlined in the camp brochure and Parent Information Booklet. I agree to cooperate and participate in all camp activities.
